MESSAGE FROM THE EAST

Greeting From the East,

March was once again a busy month for the lodge! The Junior Warden and his team did a great job preparing our annual Pig Roast. Thank you to all those that turned out to support Brother Phil Simmons. The Pig Roast was an opportunity for Brother Masons to come together and join in fellowship, but more importantly an opportunity to honor the oath all masons take..."come to the aid and assist a worthy Brother Mason in need".

I want to take a moment to thank some brothers that were key to putting the pig roast together. First, Bro. Mark Murray, he was the one that asked that the lodge come together to aid Bro. Phil. He personally took 200 tickets and sold them to fellow motorcycle rider and Masons, many of which members of the Masonic motorcycle club, Stolen Souls. Second, Bro. Gary Van Horne. Gary was responsible for getting the venue. It was an absolutely perfect location! The best part was that Gary was able to have the $250 fee waived. Third, Bro. Keith Campbell. Keith as usual did a fantastic job with the food. All those that enjoyed the meal should know that Keith and his wife started cooking our meal in the middle of the week. Food that good doesn't just happen! Fourth, our Bro. the JW. Like a conductor William coordinated all the logistics. Putting on an event this large requires a lot countless man hours. I could go on for some time naming folks that helped make this event a success but instead I'll just thank Jerry Purvis, Don Hires, George Winterling, Max Grossman, Travis Routt, the list goes on!

We have our Past Masters Dinner next month on May 3rd. Brother Keith has his eyes set on feeding the craft a "Down home Southern Meal" featuring fried chicken, not oven baked fried chicken but good old deep fried chicken.

Fraternally,
James Mullinax (Jim)
Worshipful Master and Overlord JLL #340

MEMORIAL DAY

In case you thought it was National BBQ Day

MESSAGE FROM THE WEST

Brethren,

Greetings from the West! Thank you to all of the brothers who worked diligently to make our annual pig roast a success. It was particularly satisfying to see such a great turnout in support of our own Brother Phil Simmons, and I am so very glad that he was able to come out and enjoy the day with us. For me, the opportunity to serve and support others is one of the great joys of Masonry.

The month of May is full of Masonic opportunities. Our Past Masters dinner is scheduled for Saturday, May 3rd at 6:30pm. Let's have a big turnout to show our appreciation for our Brothers who have served us so well from the East. May 16th & 17th mark the dates for the York Rite District 1 Festival at J. Dewey Hawkins Lodge in Ft. Lauderdale for the conferring of Chapter, Council and Commandery degrees. May also marks the 185th Annual Grand Communication of the Grand Lodge of Florida, May 26-28 in Orlando. If you have never been, I highly recommend it. So many Masons in one room is a sight to behold!

HOW GOOD AND HOW PLEASANT

*Behold, how pleasant and how good
For brothers such as we
In this united Brotherhood
To dwell in unity.
'Tis like the oil on Aaron's head
Which to his feet distills;
Like Hermon's dew so richly shed
On Zion's sacred hills.
For there the Lord of light and love
A blessing sent with power,
O, may we all this blessing prove,
Even life for evermore.
On friendship's altar, rising here,
Our hands now plighted be,
To live in love, with hearts sincere,
In peace and unity.*

- Giles F. Yates

Fraternally,

Bro. Don Hires, Senior Warden

MESSAGE FROM THE SOUTH

My Brothers,

Greetings from the South!

I would first like to thank everyone who participated in and contributed to making last month's Phil Simmons Benefit Pig Roast a success! I would like to especially express my appreciation to our Stewards – Brother Senior Steward Gary Van Horn for finding us such an outstanding venue, handling community relations, securing the bounce house, photographing the event, and helping with setup and breakdown; and to Brother Keith Campbell for bringing his mobile kitchen, buying and preparing the food, and cooking us another outstanding meal! Next I would like to thank the setup crew who met me on Friday to move things over to the venue - Mark Murray, Gerry Purvis, Clay Gordon, Jason Silvers, and Gary Van Horn. Finally, I would like to thank all of the other Brothers who took shifts at various jobs and helped with setup and breakdown on the day of the event – Worshipful Master Jim Mullinax, Don Hires, Steven Martinez, Mark Murray, Gerry Purvis, Worshipful Max Groceman, Shawn Lopez, David Paul, Worshipful Jack Hamill, Chris Barlow, Worshipful Jim Woody, and anyone else I may have missed. Special mention goes to our highest dollar fund-raisers: Mark Murray who sold over 70 tickets, Gerry Purvis who raised over $600.00 selling raffle tickets, and Steven Martinez, who set up a donation website that has brought in $430.00 by the writing of this article. It takes a lot of people to make an event like that come together, and the Brothers of this Lodge really stepped up to the plate and made it happen. Thank you all for your support and contributions! With all your efforts, we have raised around $4000.00 for Brother Phil, and had some great fellowship in the process.

On May 3rd at 6:30 pm, we will be holding our annual Past Master's Dinner and will be serving a traditional southern style meal of fried chicken, mashed potatoes, vegetables and more. Please come out and show your support for the men who have served the Craft as the Masters of our Lodge, and who have all contributed so much into making us the Lodge we are today. See your Lodge officers for tickets.

Looking for more Light in Masonry? On May 16-17, the Palm Beach York Rite Bodies will be participating in the District 1 Festival at J. Dewey Hawkins Lodge in Ft. Lauderdale. The degrees of the Royal Arch Masons, Royal and Select Masters, and Knights Templar will all be conferred. In the York Rite, you will learn much more to add to your Masonic knowledge, including an understanding of the lost Master Mason's word. There is still time to petition for membership in these bodies, but you need to do it soon. Petitions are available at the Lodge, or by contacting any York Rite Officers, including the High Priest of Royal Arch Masons, W.:Billy Bates; the Illustrious Master of Royal and Select Masters, Mark Shone; R.:W.:Ray Kinser, R.:W.:Malcolm Rhinehart, R.:W.:Pat Seachord, W.:Al Mueller Jr., or myself. Our Senior Warden, Don Hires, and our Senior Steward, Gary Van Horn, are both going through as Candidates, so you will be in good company. Come take advantage of this wonderful opportunity to continue your journey in Masonry!

Finally, in May, let us also remember our mothers on their special day. Without their love and guidance, we wouldn't be the men we are, and we should all be grateful for the blessings we have been given by being raised to be upright and honorable in all our transactions with mankind. Many are not so fortunate. Be sure to show them your love and appreciation!

Be well my Brothers, and may your travels always keep you in the Light.

Fraternally,
William Owen, Junior Warden
