

Greetings from the East!

A BIG THANKS to Bros. Mark Murray, David Watjen, Jack Hammill, Bev McKay, Pete Colgan and Paul Burgess who helped install the new PA system in the dining hall. Special thanks to David Goggins and Scott Hoffmeister for the knowledge about the system and the contacts for the equipment. The system is up and running and will be very beneficial during our events and meetings in the dining hall.

The new alarm system is in place and functioning. If you have any questions, contact Mark Murray at (772) 215-1010.

Our Ice Cream social was a magical and sweet event! Some of the brothers (Mark, David, Jack, Nick, James and I) served up ice cream with all the toppings and fresh baked cookies while the magician amazed the kids, Jack and Paul Disbennet (aka Not Yet the clown) entertained the kids with balloons, and then we sent them home with a big old bag of cotton candy! We had about 50 kids in attendance, along with several parents. It was great to see the dining hall filled with smiles and laughter.

Our SUMMER PICNIC will be on SUNDAY, AUGUST 17th at Riverbend Park (9060 Indiantown Road, Jupiter) this year instead of the beach. Join us at the River Pavilion located on Picnic Island on the west side of the park for lunch and fun! The park has miles of bike and walking trails, and kayak, canoe and bicycle rentals. The pavilion is right on the river, so fishing is also available. Please come out and enjoy lunch on us. We have the pavilion all day, so you are welcome to come by any time you like. Lunch will be served around noon. We will have burgers and fries, and may have some sausage on the grill.

On AUGUST 24th, we will have a MASTER MASON DEGREE instead of our monthly Fix 'n Feast. There will be donuts and coffee at 8:00 a.m., and the degree will begin at 9:00 a.m. We have four brothers being raised; come out and support them and the degree team.

The Ladies of the Eastern Star will be cooking for our Stated Communication dinner on Aug. 13th, and the Ladies of the Nile will be cooking for us on Aug. 27th.

Fraternally yours,
W.:M.: Keith Campbell
